

DONALD HAVILAND

Donald Haviland is a graduate of Ithaca College, New York where he received his Bachelor of Music and Music Education degree. Currently he holds the position of Music Director and Youth coordinator at the First Congregational Church, Old Greenwich Connecticut where he directs the youth choir. Donald has experience in a variety of musical areas including conducting orchestras, directing and coaching for musicals and coaching both vocal groups and individual students. He excels in developing artistry and musical appreciation in his students while promoting an energetic and enthusiastic environment.